Texas SandFest to Hold Volunteer Open House

Learn About Texas SandFest 2020 Volunteer Opportunities and Perks

PORT ARANSAS, Texas (Feb. 3, 2020) — Texas SandFest will hold an Open House for potential volunteers on Sunday, Feb. 16, 2020, from 2 to 4 p.m. The Open House will take place at the Port Aransas Art Center, located at 104 N. Alister St. in Port Aransas.

Anyone interested in learning about volunteer opportunities and perks for Texas SandFest 2020, which will be held April 17-19 on the beach in Port Aransas, is invited to join with other volunteers and Texas SandFest board members for networking, refreshments and door prizes.

Texas SandFest Volunteer Coordinator, Tim Parke, will be on hand to answer questions, get input from previous volunteers and explain how to sign up to be a volunteer. Parke is looking for team leaders, so anyone interested in being a team leader is encouraged to let him know at the Open House.

“Texas SandFest would not be possible without the dedicated volunteers who donate their time and energy each year to help produce the largest native-sand sculpture competition in the USA,” Parke said. “Our volunteers work hard, but they also have fun on the beach while enjoying the sculptures, the music, the food and everything else that makes Texas SandFest such a success.”
